P R O C E E D I N G S

PAUL G. JANSZEN

1
2
3 having been first duly sworn, was called as a witness
4 herein, was examined and deposed as follows:

5 MR. DOWD: By way of introduction, my name
6 is John M. Dowd of the law firm of Heron,
7 Burchette, Ruckert and Rothwell, Suite 700, 1025
8 Thomas Jefferson Street, N.W., Washington, D.C.

9 Mr. Baldwin, you are a certified court
10 reporter in Ohio, I take it?

11 REPORTER: Yes, sir.

12 MR. DOWD: And you are licensed to do
13 business in Ohio?

14 REPORTER: Yes, sir.

15 MR. DOWD: And we have an understanding --
16 I have an understanding with you that you have been 17 hired by me to take certain sworn statements and 18 that these statements are privileged and 19 confidential until you're instructed otherwise. Do
20 you understand that?

21 REPORTER: Yes, sir.

22 MR. DOWD: And you will bill be directly
23 and I will pay whatever costs and fees.

24 I will tell you that I want daily copy on 25 this deposition and any deposition that I take.

1 And so you charge me accordingly, whatever your
2 rate is.

3 I also want you to know that any time that
4 I've kept you waiting, you figure out a way to bill
5 me. There may be circumstances in other cases
6 where I keep you waiting. If I do, you just figure
7 that out and bill me appropriately.

8 This matter will remain confidential until
9 decided otherwise by the Commissioner of Baseball.

10 I was retained on February 23rd, 1989, by 11 the then Commissioner of Baseball Peter V.
12 Ueberroth. And that's spelled U-e-b-e-r-r-o-t-h.
13 And retained also by the Commissioner Elect
14 Bartlett Giamatti, G-i-a-m-a-t-t-i. And the new 15 Deputy Commissioner Francis T. Vincent, Jr.

16 And I was authorized to conduct an inquiry
17 on behalf of Major League Baseball pursuant to the 18 Major League Baseball agreement and the rules of 19 procedure of Major League Baseball.

20 The purpose of the inquiry was to 21 investigate the Manager of the Cincinnati Reds
22 Peter Edward Rose.

23 As part of that investigation, we have 24 talked to a number of witnesses. The purpose of 25 this deposition today is to take the essential

1 sworn testimony of Paul G. Janszen.

2 EXAMINATION

3 BY MR. DOWD:

4 Q Paul, if you would be kind enough to give
5 us your address and telephone number.

6 A My address is 5666 Springdale Road,
7 Cincinnati, Ohio 45239; and my phone number is area code
8 513-741-0040.

9 Q Paul, would you tell us when you were born
10 and where you were born?

11 A I was born in Hamilton County, Cincinnati,
12 Ohio, in February 26th, 1957.

13 Q That makes you what age, sir?

14 A I am 32 years old.

15 Q And where was your -- what kind of 16 occupation did your father have?

17 A My father was Vice President in charge of 18 Sales at the Queen City Barrel Company for approximately 28
19 years.

20 Q And what is the business of Queen City
21 Barrel?

22 A Queen City Barrel buys and sells
23 reconditioned steel drums.

24 Q And did you have any brothers and sisters?

25 A I have four brothers. All younger.

1 Q So you're the oldest of five?

2 A Yes, sir.

3 Q And are your mom and dad still alive?

4 A My mom and dad are still alive and married.

5 Q And do they live here in Cincinnati?

6 A They live in Cincinnati.

7 Q Okay. Paul, tell us where you were 8 educated.

9 A I went to grade school at Our Lady of
10 Lords; I continued my high school education at Elder High
11 School. I went to the University of Cincinnati for 12 approximately three years and continued on to Northern 13 Kentucky University for approximately a year to year and a 14 half.

15 Q You graduated from high school?

16 A I graduated from high school.

17 Q And do you have a degree from college?

18 A I'm short -- no, I'm still short hours on a
19 degree.

20 Q And have you majored in any particular
21 subject?

22 A I was in the police cadet program for a
23 year and a half at the University of Cincinnati and then
24 when the City did away with the program, I got into 25 marketing.

1 Q And did you take the fundamental subjects
2 that are given in college?

3 A Yes, sir.

4 Q English, Math, History?

5 A Yes, sir.

6 Q I want to direct your attention to the 7 years 1985 and 1986 and tell us what your occupation was at 8 that time.

9 A In 1985 and 1986 I was working as a sales
10 representative for the Queen City Barrel Company.

11 Q Now, Paul, are you appearing here
12 voluntarily today?

13 A Yes, sir.

14 Q And have you been interviewed by me and by 15 Mr. Hallinan and Mr. Daly on previous occasions?

16 A Yes, sir.

17 Q And was that all done voluntarily?

18 A It was.

19 Q And do you have any understanding or 20 agreement or deal with the Commissioner of Baseball?

21 A I do not.

22 Q And would you tell us why you have agreed
23 to furnish information to the Commissioner?

24 A This whole situation involving Pete Rose is 25 part of a bad period of my life and that period of my life

1 involved other things besides Pete Rose. And I felt that 2 in order to wipe the slate clean and basically start my
3 life over again, that the whole truth had to come out. Not
4 just parts or, you know, bits here and there. But that
5 everything had to come out now.

6 I felt that if it didn't, then maybe years
7 down the road this thing concerning Pete Rose might come
8 out and it would drag me into the middle of it. And I
9 would rather have everything cleared up and taken care of 10 now, at this time in my life, and not go on.

11 Q All right. Paul, have you been convicted
12 of any federal crimes?

13 A I was convicted of tax evasion --

14 Q When, sir?

15 A I was convicted in January of 1989 for tax
16 evasion for the year 1985.

17 Q And that was failure to report some income
18 on your federal tax return?

19 A It was failure to report income, yes, sir.

20 Q And that income was derived from the sale
21 of steroids?

22 A Yes, sir.

23 Q And did you enter a voluntary plea of 24 guilty to that charge?

25 A I did.

1 Q And did you cooperate with the United
2 States Attorney for the Southern District of Ohio?

3 A I did.

4 Q Did you cooperate with the Federal Bureau
5 of Investigation?

6 A Yes, sir, I did.

7 Q Did you cooperate with the Internal Revenue
8 Service?

9 A Yes, sir, I did.

10 Q And were they fully satisfied with your 11 cooperation?

12 A They felt that I gave them one hundred
13 percent cooperation and that I was one hundred percent
14 honest with them concerning all the investigations.

15 Q And did the judge, the Federal Judge, give 16 you a sentence?

17 A Yes, sir, he did.

18 Q And what was that sentence?

19 A I was to do six months at a half-way house
20 which was designated as the Talbert Center on Vine Street
21 in Cincinnati. And of the six months, with good time, I
22 will do approximately four and a half months.

23 Q Are you presently serving that sentence?

24 A Yes, sir.

25 Q And you are still cooperating with the

1 Government?

2 A A hundred percent.

3 Q Paul, do you understand the oath that
4 you've taken here today?

5 A I do.

6 Q And do you understand how important your
7 truthful testimony is to the Commissioner of Baseball?

8 A Yes, I do.

9 Q And do you understand that he has a very
10 serious responsibility to protect the integrity of the game
11 of baseball?

12 A I know he does.

13 Q Okay.

14 A That's why I'm here.

15 Q All right. Now, are you familiar with a
16 place known as Gold's Gym?

17 A Yes, sir. Gold's Gym was where I trained
18 with weights approximately maybe late '85 but mainly 1986.

19 Q And were you familiar with some of the 20 gentlemen that spent their time there at Gold's Gym?

21 A I was familiar with quite a few.

22 Q Did you know a fellow by the name of Mike
23 Fry?

24 A Yes, sir.

25 Q Where is Mike Fry today?

1 A Mike Fry is currently doing an eight year
2 sentence at the Terre Haute Federal Prison Camp in Terre
3 Haute, Indiana.

4 Q He's been convicted of a Federal crime?

5 A He was convicted of the sale of -- the 6 distribution of cocaine and a tax evasion charge.

7 Q Is Mike Fry the owner of Gold's Gym?

8 A Mike Fry was the owner of Gold's Gym in 9 1985 and 1986.

10 Q And that's where you got to know Mike Fry?

11 A Yes, sir.

12 Q And when you knew Mike Fry, was he engaged
13 in the sale and distribution of cocaine?

14 A Yes, sir.

15 Q Did you know a gentleman by the name of 16 Tommy Gioiosa? G-i-o-i-o-s-a.

17 A Yes, sir, I did.

18 Q Was he also known as Tommy Gio? G-i-o?

19 A He was known as Tommy Gio or in short they 20 would call him Gio.

21 Q And you knew Mr. Gio in 1985 and 1986?

22 A I met Tommy as far back as 1980 but I did
23 know Tommy in 1985 and 1986.

24 Q And what was his occupation in 1985/86?

25 A Tommy was employed at Gold's Gym. He

1 worked at Gold's Gym as an instructor. But that was
2 basically a front for what he -- what his actual purpose
3 there was.

4 Q And what was his actual purpose?

5 A He was the distributor for Michael Fry and 6 for Don Stenger.

7 Q Stenger is S-t-e-n-g-e-r; correct?

8 A Correct. He was the cocaine distributor
9 for both of these fellows at different times in 1985 and 10 1986. And he also was the driver, which on several 11 occasions brought cocaine back from Florida to Cincinnati.

12 Q Where was Tommy Gioiosa from?

13 A Tommy Gioiosa was originally from Boston.

14 Q And how old was Tommy Gioiosa in 1986?

15 A Tommy was 27, 28 years old in 1986.

16 Q I'm going to show you a picture and ask if 17 you are -- there are four gentlemen in the picture. Would 18 you kindly identify them from left to right please?

19 A The one on the left is myself; the 20 gentleman next to me is Pete Rose; the gentleman next to 21 him is Mickey Mantle; and the gentleman next to him is 22 Tommy Gioiosa.

23 Q Is there a resemblance between Rose and 24 Gioiosa in that picture?

25 A I think so. I've always thought so.

1 Q Do you know when this picture was taken?

2 A That picture was taken in 1986, late 1986.

3 Q Where?

4 A It was taken in New York. Brooklyn, New
5 York, at a baseball card show where Pete Rose and Mickey
6 Mantle were signing autographs.

7 Q Did you furnish this picture to me?

8 A Yes, I did.

9 Q Now, getting back to Gold's Gym in 1985 and 10 1986, did you know a gentleman by the name of Don Stenger,
11 S-t-e-n-g-e-r?

12 A I knew Don not only in 1985 and 1986, but I
13 originally met him in 1979/1980.

14 Q And what was his occupation in 1979 and 15 '80?

16 A Don worked for the Ford Motor Company in 17 Sharonville and in Batavia.

18 Q Batavia, Ohio?

19 A Batavia, Ohio.

20 Q Good. And in 1985/86 what was Mr.
21 Stenger's occupation?

22 A Don Stenger had got involved in cocaine
23 distribution. He was a pretty large distributor in this
24 area. He also owned 50 percent of the Gold's Gym in Forest
25 Park. The Gym was basically started from drug money and it

1 was a way to launder money according to Don and Mike Fry.

2 Q Okay. Did you know a gentleman by the name
3 of Eveslage, E-v-e-s-l-a-g-e?

4 A Sure. Jim Eveslage trained at Gold's Gym.

5 Q In 1985/86?

6 A Yes, sir.

7 Q And what was Mr. Eveslage's occupation?

8 A It was hard to say back then. Jim Eveslage
9 seemed to bounce from one deal to another. And only after 10 getting to know him did I find out that basically he was a
11 man that liked to borrow money from people and eventually 12 or hopefully never have to pay these people back.

13 It seemed that he liked to gamble somewhat.
14 And we all used to wonder how he could support his card
15 playing habits and some of his betting habits when he
16 really didn't have a substantial job.

17 Q Do you know whether Mr. Eveslage knew a
18 gentleman by the name of Ron Peters?

19 A Jim Eveslage and Ron Peters were pretty 20 good friends. They -- I heard that Jim Eveslage met Ron 21 Peters at the Beckett Ridge Country Club where Ron Peters
22 was a golf instructor. I don't know what years this took 23 place. But they had become friends and socialized at 24 times, you know, dinners and whatnot, at the Grand Finale
25 Restaurant.

1 Q Now, did Mr. Gioiosa, Mr. Fry, Mr. Stenger
2 all know each other?

3 A Oh, yes. At one time they were best of 4 friends.

5 Q Were they all involved in the cocaine
6 distribution business?

7 A Yes, sir, they were.

8 Q To your knowledge. Is that based upon your 9 own observation and what you heard?

10 A That's based on my own personal observation
11 and conversation between all three of the gentlemen and 12 what I also observed.

13 Q And that was during the years 1985 and '86?

14 A And 1986, yes, sir.

15 Q Did that continue into 1987?

16 A Just briefly with Tommy Gioiosa. The other
17 two gentlemen were no longer hanging around with Tommy.

18 Q Do you know a gentleman by the name of Pete
19 Rose?

20 A Very well.

21 Q And is this the same Pete Rose that is the 22 Manager of the Cincinnati Reds baseball club?

23 A Yes, sir, it is.

24 Q And when did you first come to know Pete
25 Rose?

1 A Well, as far as know Pete Rose, I knew Pete
2 Rose ever since I was a little boy watching the Reds play
3 baseball.

4 I also saw Pete Rose come into Gold's Gym
5 from time to time in 1986. And was introduced to him
6 briefly at the Gym. But I really never actually met him
7 and sat down and talked with him until September 1986.

8 Q Who introduced you to Pete Rose in Gold's
9 Gym?

10 A Tommy Gioiosa.

11 Q Do you know whether in 1986 Mr. Rose knew
12 Mr. Fry, Mr. Stenger and Mr. Gio?

13 A Pete knew and hung around with all of these 14 gentlemen at one point of time in 1986.

15 And going back as far as 1985.

16 Q All right. Do you know whether any of 17 these gentlemen I've mentioned, Stenger, Fry or Gio, ever
18 engaged in gambling activity?

19 A All three were involved in gambling. Don
20 Stenger was not involved in it to the extent that Mike Fry
21 was. And Mike Fry was not involved in it to the extent
22 that Tommy Gioiosa was.

23 Q Was Tommy Gioiosa betting simply on behalf
24 of himself?

25 A Oh, no. No, not at all. He made bets on

1 behalf of quite a few individuals.

2 Q Do you know whether he made bets on behalf
3 of Pete Rose?

4 A I do for a fact.

5 Q And how do you know that?

6 A From Tommy telling me; from Pete Rose
7 telling me; from personal observations, first-hand
8 observations of Pete Rose making bets with Tommy through
9 phone calls that were being placed at Gold's Gym, phone
10 calls that were being received at Gold's Gym.

11 Q Phone calls to whom?

12 A Phone calls to Tommy Gioiosa from Pete
13 Rose. Phone calls to Pete Rose from Tommy Gioiosa. All
14 occurring basically in 1986, to my knowledge.

15 Q Okay. Do you know, was Gioiosa a
16 bookmaker?

17 A Tommy was, as far as I knew, was nothing
18 more than a friend of Pete's who was taking care of a lot
19 of Pete's business for him. He was basically a go-between.

20 Q Are you saying gambling business or other
21 business?

22 A Everything. From having cars -- from
23 having Pete's cars worked on to setting up some of Pete's
24 women when they would come to town. When I say setting up,
25 meaning that Tommy would put them up at his house so Pete

1 could come visit them there. And also taking Pete's bets
2 and placing them for Pete.

3 Q In 1986 did you know who Tommy Gioiosa was 4 placing the bets with?

5 A I had never met Ron Peters, but I had heard
6 that the gentleman that was taking the bets was a gentleman
7 from Franklin, Ohio, named Ron Peters. Who Tommy had
8 discussed with me and had said that Ron Peters could handle
9 all of the action Pete could throw his way.

10 Q And were you aware in 1986 of the size of 11 the action?

12 A In 1986 before I actually met Pete Rose I
13 was aware that Tommy was betting several thousands of 14 dollars per game for Pete Rose. And that it seemed that 15 every week that passed, that Pete was down anywhere from 16 fifteen to thirty thousand dollars. And that Tommy, at 17 times, was getting pretty concerned with the amount of 18 money that was being lost and the inability of Pete Rose to 19 pay back the gambling wagers on time.

20 And I was probably one of 50 people that
21 were in Gold's Gym at that time that could hear the phone
22 conversations fairly well between Pete Rose and Tommy 23 Gioiosa concerning the betting going on.

24 Q Do you know what sports activities Mr.
25 Gioiosa placed bets for Mr. Rose on in 1986?

1 A In 1986 I was aware that Pete had bet on
2 the National League Playoffs between Houston and the New 3 York Mets. And I was aware that Pete had placed bets on 4 pro and college football all through the 1986 season.

5 Q And to your knowledge these bets were
6 placed with Ron Peters in Franklin, Ohio, by Mr. Gioiosa?

7 A Yes, sir.

8 Q Did you ever see Mr. Gioiosa with large
9 sums of cash?

10 A I can't remember a time when Tommy didn't
11 have large sums of cash on him.

12 Q Where did he keep the cash?

13 A He used to keep anywhere from five to ten
14 to fifteen thousand dollars rolled up in a wad and placed
15 in his sock, in his tube sock right above his gym shoe.

16 Q Did Mr. Gioiosa tell you that he was 17 placing bets on sports activities for Mr. Rose?

18 A Tommy would not only discuss this with me
19 but he would brag about the money that was being wagered.
20 And I think he felt somewhat important because he was 21 handling such a huge task for Pete Rose.

22 Q Did Mr. Gioiosa bet himself?

23 A Tommy did get involved in gambling himself.
24 As I did.

25 Q And do you know the size of Mr. Gioiosa's

1 personal bets?

2 A Tommy basically would keep his betting on a
3 game at around five hundred dollars. Sometimes up to a
4 thousand, but it was between those two figures.

5 Q Did Mr. Gioiosa record in any way his
6 betting activity on behalf of Pete Rose?

7 A Tommy used to write down on sheets of paper
8 what the wagers were. And he also used to receive betting
9 sheets, as they call them, for each week's activities.
10 Especially when it came to college football, where there
11 would be a number of teams to bet on. And he would keep a
12 sheet and he would give Pete a sheet so that at times when 13 they bet on the football games, Pete would just call up and 14 give Tommy numbers corresponding to the teams that were 15 playing. And that way would not have to go into the whole
16 spelling out of the teams' names.

17 Q Did you see these betting sheets?

18 A Oh, I sure did.

19 Q Did Tommy show them to you?

20 A I saw these betting sheets at Tommy's house
21 and I saw similar sheets at Pete's house.

22 Q Did Tommy Gio ever tell you whether he and 23 Pete went to see Ron Peters in Franklin, Ohio?

24 A When you use the word "tell", it's more
25 like brag about the things that he would do with Pete.

1 Q Just answer my questions and then you can
2 explain. Is the answer yes?

3 A Yes, he did. He discussed quite often the 4 situation between Pete and Ron Peters and himself. And the 5 fact that Pete had personally gone and met Ron Peters on at 6 least two occasions.

7 Q Did there come a time in 1986 when you were
8 invited to Pete Rose's home?

9 A Yes, sir.

10 Q And where is that home located?

11 A That home is located on Given Road in 12 Indian Hill.

13 Q Is that part of Cincinnati, Ohio?

14 A It's a suburb of Cincinnati, Ohio. I think
15 the address was 9180 Given Road.

16 Q G-i-v-e-n?

17 A G-i-v-e-n.

18 Q Okay. And would you tell us who invited
19 you and when you were invited to the home?

20 A Tommy Gioiosa had invited me there in late
21 September, early October of 1986.

22 Q Is there a particular event that you
23 remember that date?

24 A I remember first going to meet Pete Rose
25 the same evening that they were -- that the National League

1 Playoffs were being played. And I --

2 Q That's the baseball playoffs?

3 A It's the baseball playoffs.

4 Q And are you aware whether Mr. Rose bet on 5 those playoffs?

6 A At that time I was aware that Tommy had
7 told me that Pete had bet on those games and that Tommy
8 himself had bet a little bit on those games. And he said
9 that it made them more exciting, in Pete's words, to bet on 10 those games.

11 Q Did you meet Pete's wife at that time?

12 A I met Pete and his wife and Pete's son
13 Tyler.

14 Q Thereafter, did you -- were you invited
15 back to Mr. Rose's house?

16 A I was invited back at least once, sometimes 17 twice a week, all through the October, November and 18 December months of 1986. Which is when the football season
19 began. And is when betting on football took place.

20 Q And did Mr. Rose record his betting
21 activity in any way?

22 A Yes, sir, he did. Not only did he have 23 these betting sheets as I discussed previously which had 24 typewritten names of the different teams being played, but 25 also he would record his wagers and the results of his

1 wagers in a notebook, a binder type notepad that he kept in
2 his home.

3 Q Were you invited to go on trips with Mr.
4 Rose? Let's take the period September, October, November,
5 December.

6 A I was invited by Pete personally to go on
7 at least half a dozen trips that involved baseball card
8 shows in which Pete Rose was signing autographs at. These 9 all took place between October and December of 1986.

10 Q And do you recall any of the places that 11 you went?

12 A We traveled to New York twice. I remember
13 the card show that he did where I got to meet Mickey Mantle
14 for the first time, which was in late 1986.

15 Q Was that in December 1986?

16 A Yes, sir, in Brooklyn -- I think it was
17 Brooklyn, New York, at some type of school or a church.

18 In 1986 there was a time when we also 19 traveled to Philadelphia for a card show but I don't
20 remember what month.

21 Q Would you tell us briefly what happens at 22 these card shows? The card shows we just spoke about.

23 A At a baseball card show a promoter, and
24 anyone can be a promoter, they get one or two or three or a
25 dozen baseball players to come to the place where the card

1 show is being held, to sign autographs at an autograph fee.
2 And along with this, dealers of baseball memorabilia pay
3 the promoter so much per table to set-up at their card show
4 and sell their own items at these baseball card shows.

5 Q When you say "items", what are we talking
6 about?

7 A Autographed balls; bats; photos; baseball
8 cards; jerseys; game worn uniforms; game worn equipment;
9 posters; pennants; that type of thing.

10 Q And was Mr. Rose paid for these appearances
11 and the same of this memorabilia?

12 A All the time. Pete was a very popular
13 personality as far as these baseball card shows in this
14 period of October through December of 1986.

15 Q How was he paid?

16 A Pete was paid primarily in cash. I
17 remember one occasion where a dealer did pay him partial
18 payment by check. But this seemed to aggravate Pete Rose
19 because he did not like to be paid by check. He wanted
20 cash. And his reasoning, coming from his mouth to my ears,
21 was that cash money did not have to be claimed.

22 Q Now, can you tell me approximately how much
23 he received in cash from these shows?

24 A I tried to approximate that once with 25 people that are working in other investigations. I felt

1 that after discussing things -- discussing baseball card
2 shows with some of the promoters that used Pete Rose in 3 1985 and 1986, that he probably averaged anywhere from 4 eight to twelve thousand dollars per card show. And he did
5 --

6 Q In cash?

7 A In cash. At least ten thousand -- at least
8 eight -- excuse me, at least eight thousand cash of the 9 twelve. And that he would do anywhere from fifteen card
10 shows -- 15 on up as far as the number of card shows that 11 he would do per year.

12 Q Now, did you observe Pete Rose in the last
13 three months of 1986 with cash receipts from card shows?

14 A I am pretty knowledgeable as far as the 15 amount of money made at these shows because I was sitting 16 next to him and --

17 Q Answer my question.

18 A Yes, I did. I did see Pete with the money.
19 He would usually have it put in a brown lunch bag and I
20 would be asked to count the money to make sure that it was 21 all there.

22 Q And you recall counting the cash?

23 A A number of times.

24 Q And then you would give the cash to Pete?

25 A Then I would either hold on to the cash for

1 him or at times hand it over to Pete at the show. But it
2 seemed that he usually wanted me to hold on to it until we
3 got back to the plane or to the limousine or whatever was 4 taking us back home.

5 Q All right. Did you ever see Pete Rose with 6 cash in his home?

7 A All the time.

8 Q In 1986.

9 A All the time.

10 Q Do you recall any particular sums of money
11 Pete Rose had?

12 A Pete could have up to thirty, forty
13 thousand dollars sitting on top of his TV in the kitchen in 14 stacks. Or stuck inside one of the kitchen...

15 Q Cabinets?

16 A Kitchen cabinets. Sometimes it would be
17 hidden in his brown zipper little duffel bag that he used
18 to carry.

19 Q Did you ever witness Pete Rose paying
20 anyone in cash or giving anyone cash?

21 A Pete had given -- in this period of time
22 Pete had given Tommy Gioiosa cash at times.

23 Q Do you know the purpose of giving Gioiosa
24 the cash?

25 A Sure. The cash money was used to pay off

1 the gambling debts.

2 Q And how do you know that?

3 A Listening to Pete and Tommy's conversation.

4 Q This was freely and openly discussed in
5 your presence?

6 A Beyond openly. It was --

7 Q Just answer the question.

8 A Yes. Yes.

9 Q Okay. Were you invited on any social
10 occasions with Pete Rose in 1986 and the first couple of 11 months of 1987?

12 A Pete had invited me to spend New Year's Eve
13 with him and Carol and about eight other people. And we
14 spent New Year's Eve at the Waterfront, which is a
15 restaurant in Covington, Kentucky.

16 I also had several lunches with Pete at 17 Montgomery Inn and also at the Bob Evans' Restaurant on 18 North Bend Road.

19 Q Okay. And I take it you were invited to 20 his home to watch sports activities?

21 A That was a -- yes, sir. That was a weekly
22 routine.

23 Q Now, do you recall being invited to his
24 home on Christmas 1986?

25 A Yes, sir.

1 Q And do you recall giving him a present?

2 A Yes, sir. I gave Pete a -- it was a hobo
3 music box. Tommy Gioiosa gave him one and I gave him one.
4 And they were two different boxes but they were both hobos
5 and they kind of matched. They were like -- he used them
6 as like bookends on his -- they sat on his bar in his 7 family room.

8 Q Now, did you have a girlfriend by the name
9 of Danita Marcum?

10 A I did and I still do.

11 Q And did she on occasion accompany you to 12 Pete Rose's home?

13 A She went with me most of the time after I'd 14 say the first several visits that I made by myself. She 15 was with me after that.

16 Q And did she ever accompany you on any of 17 the trips to card shows?

18 A She was with me on most of the card shows
19 because it was a -- Pete felt it was a good thing that his 20 wife Carol had someone that could go shopping with her and 21 then Carol did not have to sit at the card show and be
22 bored for three or four hours.

23 Q Do you recall Danita Marcum accompanying 24 you to the card show in Brooklyn, New York?

25 A Yes, sir, she did.

1 Q Would you tell us how you traveled to New
2 York on that occasion in December 1986?

3 A In December of 1986 we took a private jet
4 out of Lunken Airport and flew to a small airport in New 5 York.

6 Q Do you recall who was on the aircraft with 7 you?

8 A Yes, sir, I do. It was Danita and myself;
9 Pete Rose and his wife Carol; and Tommy Gioiosa.

10 Q Did Tommy Gioiosa have a female companion
11 with him?

12 A Not at that time. He had several female
13 companions but not with him on that particular trip.

14 Q Okay. And who met you at the airport in 15 New York?

16 A When we landed at the airport Mike
17 Bertolini met us as we were coming out of the airport
18 lounge and into the entrance area.

19 Q And were there limousines there to meet you?

20 A Yes, sir, there were two.

21 Q And tell me who got in the first limousine
22 and then who got in the second limousine?

23 A Pete Rose and Carol Rose and Danita Marcum
24 got in the first limousine.

25 I, Paul Janszen, and Tommy Gioiosa and Mike

1 Bertolini got into the second limousine, which was parked
2 behind the first one.

3 Q Okay. And would you tell me what occurred
4 in your limousine after you left the airport?

5 A Well, as we walked to the limousines to get
6 in the limousines, Pete directed me to get into the second
7 limousine with Mike Bertolini.

8 I got in the second limousine with Mike
9 Bertolini and Tommy Gioiosa. And sitting across from me in 10 the limousine, face to face with me, was a fellow that Mike
11 Bertolini introduced as Tom.

12 No sooner did our limousine hit the main
13 road, Tom pulled a brown bag from the side of his body and 14 pulled out a kilo of cocaine from the brown bag. And he
15 sat it on my knees and Tommy and Mike Bertolini both made
16 comments to the fact that, "Hey, look at this, Paul. Take 17 a look. Is it any good? You know, if it is, we can get as 18 many as we need".

19 Q And did you receive a phone call while you
20 were in that limousine?

21 A The phone rang within a couple minutes of 22 this limousine, our limousine, hitting the main road. And 23 I did not answer the phone but the phone was handed to me.
24 And Pete was on the other end.

25 Q What did he say to you?

1 A Pete asked me if it was any good. Meaning
2 was the cocaine any good.

3 Q And what did you say?

4 A I told him that he was -- not remembering
5 the exact words but the feeling was that he was crazy. I
6 was pretty much amazed that this was taking place. And I
7 was very, very scared that there were limo drivers who 8 could have been anyone, including agents, that could have 9 witnessed this whole thing. And yet this whole -- this 10 whole situation in the limousine was so openly discussed
11 and displayed.

12 Q Now, tell me when you first met Michael 13 Bertolini?

14 A I met Mikey, Mike Bertolini or as we called
15 him Mikey, I met him at the first baseball card show that I
16 did with Pete in October of 1986.

17 Q Just give me a physical description of 18 Michael Bertolini at that time.

19 A At that time Mike was about five-nine and 20 about 350 pounds.

21 Q How old was Mike?

22 A Mike was 21. Twenty, 21, 22 years old.

23 Q And did Mike Bertolini know Pete Rose?

24 A He knew him very well. He knew him very 25 well.

1 Q And how do you know that? What did you
2 observe?

3 A I observed them, you know, hugging each
4 other, shaking each other's hand, talking back and forth as 5 if they had known each other for several years. Discussing
6 gambling practices; discussing -- discussing situations
7 that only a good friend would discuss with another friend.

8 Q What was Mike Bertolini's occupation?

9 A At the time he was employed by a baseball
10 card shop in New York. His employer was named -- or is 11 named Bill Hungash.

12 Q H-u-n-g-a-s-h.

13 A Mike Bertolini also considered himself Pete
14 Rose's only photographer or his sole photographer or his 15 traveling photographer, however you would want to call it.

16 Q You mentioned that there was discussions of 17 gambling activity?

18 A Uh-huh.

19 Q And can you give me any more detail than 20 that?

21 A While we would be at these card shows in
22 1986, not only would Pete place bets and discuss his wagers
23 with Tommy Gioiosa, but he was also betting and placing 24 wagers and discussing the wagers with Mike Bertolini. He 25 was using Mike Bertolini in the same sense that he was

1 using Tommy Gioiosa, as a go-between to make baseball -- or
2 to make football bets at that time through other bookies.

3 Q Okay. And Mr. Bertolini handled these bets
4 as far as you know?

5 A Yes, sir, he did.

6 Q Did you ever witness him making the bets?

7 A I would be sitting at the table with Pete
8 while we were signing autographs. And Pete usually would 9 demand to have a TV set set-up so that he could watch the 10 football games that were in progress. And the TV would be 11 set up catty-corner to his chair at the autograph table so
12 that he could view the games.

13 And I can remember times when people would 14 come up and say, "Hey, Pete, who did you bet? Who have you
15 got your money on today?"

16 And he'd say, Oh, I took -- whatever team
17 he took or whatever teams were being played. He had no
18 qualms about discussing this with the average guy off the 19 street who was up at the table for an autograph.

20 Q Now, did there come a time when Pete went
21 to spring training in 1987?

22 A Yes, sir. Pete was Manager of the 23 Cincinnati Reds in 1987 and went to Tampa, Florida in mid
24 February of 1987.

25 Q And do you recall receiving a call from

1 Pete Rose in or about the second or third week of February
2 1987?

3 A Yes. He asked me when I was going to get
4 my butt down to Florida.

5 Q And what was your reaction?

6 A I was very much honored to have Pete think
7 that much of me to have me spend some time with him and his
8 wife. And not only I, but Danita, my girlfriend, was 9 invited. And we took him up on his offer.

10 Q Do you know whether Tommy Gioiosa was 11 invited?

12 A Tommy and Pete had some problems with their 13 relationship in late December of 1986 and early January of 14 1987. Pete felt Tommy was too boisterous about Pete's
15 activities, his gambling activities especially. And he 16 would make comments that he thought Tommy had gone out of 17 his mind from the use of steroids and no longer really
18 trusted Tommy like he had done in the past.

19 Q Is this what Pete Rose told you?

20 A Yes, sir.

21 And Tommy was not invited to spring
22 training. And to tell you the truth, I felt kind of funny
23 about the fact that I was invited and Tommy wasn't. And I
24 did not even tell Tommy that I was leaving to go to 25 Florida. We just packed up and left.

1 Q And where did you stay in Florida?

2 A I stayed with Pete.

3 Q And how long did you stay there?

4 A We stayed there -- we initially went down
5 for a couple weeks and every time we made the suggestion or
6 comment to Pete that we were about ready to go back home
7 and we thought -- we didn't want to wear out our welcome,
8 he could get concerned and somewhat upset that we were 9 going to leave. And basically his wife would come to 10 Danita and say, "Danita, you know, Pete and I want you to 11 stay. We want you to stay longer".

12 So we stayed for five and a half, six
13 weeks.

14 Q Now, what did you do while you were down
15 there; just generally?

16 A Well, we would -- you know, the first week
17 I went to the training facility. Pete introduced me to the 18 players. I watched how spring training -- how all the 19 different things took place in spring training.

20 After that, we started going to some of the 21 games. You know, Pete would leave Danita and Carol and 22 myself tickets. And, you know, we would baby-sit Tyler
23 Rose sometimes. We would go out in the back yard and fish.
24 There was a big lake out in the back.

25 Pete and I, we had a routine, almost a

1 daily routine, where he would come home right after the
2 afternoon session of spring training and he would pick me
3 up and we would go off to the Tampa Bay Downs Race Track,
4 horse track.

5 Q Okay. Did you have occasion to met a
6 gentleman by the name of Mario Nunez, N-u-n-e-z, at the 7 Tampa Bay track?

8 A Yes, sir.

9 Q And what was Mr. Mario Nunez' occupation?

10 A Mario was a maitre d' at the -- on the 11 level where they serve food and where some of the more --
12 the exclusive type of track people would hang out.

13 Q Did Mr. Nunez have a nickname?

14 A Sure. Pete used to always call him the 15 Cuban.

16 Q Okay. And did you meet a gentleman by the 17 name of Steve Chevashore? That's C-h-e-v-a-s-h-o-r-e.

18 A Yes, I did. They called him Stevie.

19 Q And was he acquainted with Mr. Nunez?

20 A They seemed to know each other.

21 Q And did you meet a Mr. Howard Bernstein?

22 A Howard Bernstein, they called him Howie.
23 He was Stevie's uncle.

24 Q And did Pete Rose, Paul Janszen, Mario
25 Nunez, Steve Chevashore and Howard Bernstein visit together

1 at the Tampa Bay Downs?

2 A Almost daily.

3 Q And would you tell me whether that group or
4 Pete Rose engaged in any gambling activity?

5 A Yes, they did.

6 Q And could you tell me what it was?

7 A They not only bet on horses at the track,
8 but they also bet through a bookie on other sports.

9 Q And did Pete Rose place bets with one of 10 these gentlemen?

11 A He placed bets through me with Stevie
12 Chevashore.

13 Q Is this the first time that you'd ever
14 engaged in any substantial gambling activity?

15 A It's the very first time I engaged in 16 betting and it's the first time I ever met a bookie before.

17 Q Did anybody explain to you the mechanics of 18 betting and gambling?

19 A Sure. Both Pete and Stevie explained how 20 it worked and how -- the betting lingo and what a dime
21 meant and what a nickel meant.

22 Q What's a dime mean?

23 A A dime means one thousand dollars.

24 Q And a nickel means what?

25 A Five hundred dollars.

1 Q What else did they explain to you?

2 A They explained how -- Stevie explained to
3 me how -- when I talked to him on the phone, how I should 4 only use key words that could not be detected if -- or
5 certain words that I should not use that could be detected
6 if someone was on our phone listening.

7 He explained to me how to --

8 Q Do you remember any of those words?

9 A He would basically -- you never use the 10 word "bet". He said that I should never use Pete Rose's 11 name, that I should say "my friend" and he would know who 12 my friend was. Do not use the word "bet" or anything to do
13 with placing bets or wagers. And just to keep things very 14 simple and to say the name of teams. And he would give me
15 the lines without me saying "what's the line".

16 Q Okay. And did you place bets on sports
17 activities with Steve Chevashore for Pete Rose?

18 A Yes, sir, I did.

19 Q Did you have the financial ability to place
20 those bets yourself?

21 A No, I did not.

22 Q And what size bets did you place?

23 A I placed bets for Pete Rose for two 24 thousand dollars no matter what the game was, no matter
25 when the game was being played. It was basically a -- it

1 was an understanding between Pete Rose and Stevie
2 Chevashore and myself that anytime bets were called in for
3 "my friend", that they would be for the amount of two
4 thousand dollars.

5 Q And do you know who the bookmaker was
6 taking the action?

7 A Eventually -- yes, eventually I found out.

8 Q And did that bookmaker have a name?

9 A The only name I ever knew of was Val.

10 Q Val? V-a-l?

11 A Yes, sir.

12 Q And do you know where Val was located?

13 A Val was located in New York, somewhere in 14 New York City.

15 Q Staten Island?

16 A Staten Island was -- is probably a close --
17 you're probably very close by saying that.

18 Q All right. If Pete Rose lost money was 19 there a time to pay up?

20 A While we were sitting at the Tampa -- yes,
21 to answer your question, yes. While we were sitting at the 22 Tampa Bay Downs when we were discussing this whole betting
23 setup, Stevie told Pete and myself that his people in New 24 York expected to be paid every Monday following the 25 previous week of betting.

1 Q And did Pete always pay?

2 A Hardly ever. He was always in a bind as
3 far as coming up with cash money. And his answer to me on 4 Monday of each week would be, "Oh, hell, Paul, they'll let
5 me carry it. They'll let me carry the figure. You don't 6 know bookies like I do. They all moan and bitch and 7 complain about being paid on time, but they never ever
8 really expect to be paid on time".

9 Q Did there come a time, at any time, that he
10 gave you money to pay Chevashore?

11 A Yes, sir, he did. In Florida Pete gave me
12 a check which I took to Howard Bernstein's office where I
13 met Stevie and Howard Bernstein. Howard Bernstein called a 14 bank which he does business with and had the bank okay the 15 cashing of that check.

16 Q I want to go back to the -- I forgot to ask
17 you a question. Let me go back to the limousine ride with 18 the cocaine on your knee and the telephone call.

19 Do you know whether Tommy Gioiosa had any
20 money with him on that trip?

21 A Tommy Gioiosa had a whole boot full of 22 money.

23 Q Do you know approximately how much he had?

24 A He counted the money out in the limousine
25 and there was somewhere in the neighborhood of I want to

1 think forty thousand dollars.

2 Q All right. Now, back to Florida. Did Pete
3 Rose ever give you cash to pay Steve Chevashore?

4 A Yes, sir.

5 Q And did Pete Rose keep sums of cash in his
6 home and on his person?

7 A Yes, sir, he did.

8 Q And do you recall the amounts of cash that
9 he either kept or gave you to pay Chevashore?

10 A It was in the thousands of dollars. Not
11 anything above ten thousand dollars as far as cash money.
12 At the time I was not as close to Pete as I would become 13 later on. And I was not sure exactly how much cash money
14 he kept in his duffel bag or his suitcase.

15 Q Do you recall of any instance in which 16 Chevashore gave you money for Pete's winnings and you gave 17 Pete money?

18 Or another way to ask it is, do you
19 remember Pete winning?

20 A Never once in Florida.

21 Q You were in Florida approximately six
22 weeks?

23 A From the third week -- yes, sir, from the 24 third week in February until the Reds left Tampa and headed
25 back to Cincinnati.

1 Q Do you recall Pete Rose cashing any checks
2 at the race track?

3 A At the Tampa Bay Downs?

4 Q Yes, sir.

5 A He had Mario Nunez cash several checks at 6 Tampa Bay Downs.

7 Q Do you recall him winning any money on
8 horse races at Tampa Bay Downs?

9 A I remember him winning money. How much
10 money I couldn't recall.

11 Q And do you know who cashed in the tickets
12 for him?

13 A He used Stevie Chevashore to cash some of 14 his tickets.

15 Q Did he ever cash the tickets himself?

16 A I can't remember a time when I saw Pete go
17 to the window and cash a ticket himself.

18 Q Okay.

19 A I'd like to say something else about that 20 before we get off that subject.

21 Q Okay.

22 A He explained to me that Stevie Chevashore
23 was the kind of guy that hung out at the track and his 24 business and job was to cash tickets so that people in 25 Pete's tax situation did not have to cash them himself --

1 themselves. And this was done as a way to save money.

2 Q Okay. And did you see Chevashore give cash
3 to Pete?

4 A More than once.

5 Q Now, there came a time the end of March or
6 early April that you returned to Cincinnati. And would you
7 tell us how you returned?

8 A Danita flew back to Cincinnati with Carol
9 Rose and the rest of the Cincinnati ballplayers on the team
10 plane.

11 I flew to Nashville, Tennessee with Pete
12 Rose, Carl Yastremski and Tommy Helms in a private plane.
13 Pete was putting on -- promoting and signing at a baseball
14 card show at Opry Land. And I was there to help administer
15 some of the -- you know, the things that go with putting on 16 a baseball card show. And also taking care of Joe
17 DiMaggio, making sure that the press left him alone.

18 Q Can you recall whether Pete was paid for 19 that card show?

20 A Pete, Mike Bertolini and a gentleman named
21 Chuck Perkins were all promoters of that show. And Pete
22 Rose was paid. I know that he received between twelve and 23 fifteen thousand dollars just for his autograph signing
24 session. What he received as payment of the show itself, I
25 was not involved in.

1 Q The twelve to fifteen thousand was paid in
2 what form?

3 A Cash.

4 Q Did you see the cash?

5 A I saw Pete with cash money on him in large
6 amounts. I don't know how much, I never counted it.

7 At the time of the show I was sitting with 8 Joe DiMaggio and I think Mike Bertolini was sitting with 9 Pete Rose.

10 Q Now, I have before you in my book, which is 11 Exhibit 1. When you returned to -- and then Exhibit 2,
12 which I'm going to ask you about in a minute.

13 When you returned to Cincinnati, did you
14 continue to place bets on sporting events for Pete Rose?

15 A Yes, I did.

16 Q And I want you to look at Exhibit 1 which
17 consists of, I think, three pages; and ask you if you
18 recognize these sheets?

19 A Yes, sir, I do.

20 Q And tell me what they are.

21 A These are betting sheets that Pete used to 22 keep in his -- these are betting sheets that Pete used to
23 record and keep in his notepad to make sure that he, you
24 know -- to make sure that he remembered who he bet and that
25 what he bet on matched the gambling activities that I

1 handled for him.

2 Q Is this a copy of an original?

3 A Yes, sir, it is.

4 Q And whose handwriting is it?

5 A This is in Pete Rose's.

6 Q All three sheets?

7 A Yes, sir.

8 Q And then I'll show you Exhibit 2 and ask
9 you if you recognize that document which consists of 10 approximately 25 pages?

11 A Yes, sir.

12 Q And what is that document, sir?

13 A Those are my records of Pete's betting that 14 was going on while I was placing these bets with Stevie
15 Chevashore and Val.

16 Q And what activities did Mr. Rose bet on?

17 A Are you talking about these documents here?

18 Q That's correct.

19 A He bet on basketball, baseball and hockey.

20 Q And what was Mr. Rose's position at the 21 time that -- here we have what, April, May 1987?

22 A Yes, sir.

23 Q And what was his position in baseball?

24 A He was the Manager of the Cincinnati Reds.

25 Q And in 1986 when you observed him betting

1 on the National League Playoffs, what was his position?

2 A Pete was the Manager of the Cincinnati
3 Reds.

4 Q And did any of these records -- let's take
5 Exhibit 1 first, reflect any bets on the Cincinnati Reds
6 baseball team?

7 A Yes, they do.

8 Q And did you place those bets for him?

9 A Yes, sir, I did.

10 Q And let's turn to Exhibit 2. And does
11 Exhibit 2 reflect betting on baseball by Pete Rose while he 12 was Manager of the Cincinnati Reds?

13 A Yes, sir.

14 Q And did you place those bets?

15 A Yes, sir, I did.

16 Q And who did you place those bets with?

17 A I placed those bets with Stevie Chevashore
18 and after several weeks of betting directly through Stevie
19 Chevashore, I was given a phone number in New York and I
20 contacted the bookie in New York direct. His name was Val.

21 Q Now, taking your sheets, Exhibit 2 --

22 A Yes, sir.

23 Q -- would you look at April 8th?

24 Do you see April 8th?

25 A Yes, sir.

1 Q And was there a bet on the Cincinnati Reds

2 --

3 A Yes, there was.

4 Q -- by Pete Rose?

5 A Yes, there was.

6 Q And did you place that bet for him?

7 A Yes, I did.

8 Q And what was the result of that bet?

9 A The Reds won their game and Pete won two
10 thousand dollars.

11 Q And on April 9th, 1987, do you reflect any 12 betting?

13 On the Reds.

14 A No, sir, I don't.

15 Q April 10th, 1987, on the Cincinnati Reds
16 baseball club?

17 A Yes, sir, I do.

18 Q Did you place a bet for Pete Rose on the 19 Cincinnati Reds baseball club while he was Manager of the 20 Cincinnati Reds?

21 A Yes, sir, I did.

22 Q On April 10th, 1987?

23 A Yes, sir.

24 Q And you placed it with Mr. Chevashore?

25 A Let's see, on April the 10th, yes, sir, I

1 was still calling Steve Chevashore direct.

2 Q And Mr. Chevashore would place the bet with
3 the bookmaker Val in New York?

4 A Yes, sir.

5 Q And you learned that subsequently; correct?

6 A Yes, sir.

7 Q So Mr. Chevashore was simply a go-between?

8 A Mr. Chevashore was a go-between and his
9 only hope was that Pete would win and that Pete would kick
10 him some money, you know, as part of a favor for doing this 11 thing.

9 won two thousand dollars.

10 Q On April 14th, 1987, did Pete Rose, the 11 General Manager of the Cincinnati Reds, place a bet through 12 you on the Reds baseball game?

13 A He wasn't the General Manager.

14 Q I'm sorry, the Manager of the Cincinnati
15 Reds, excuse me.

16 A Yes, sir, he did.

17 Q What was the result of that bet?

18 A The Cincinnati Reds won that game and Pete
19 Rose won two thousand dollars.

20 Q On April 14th, did Pete Rose, the Manager
21 of the Cincinnati Reds, bet on a Reds baseball game?

22 A Excuse me, did you say the 14th or 15th?

23 Q I said the 14th.

24 A Okay, we just covered that.

25 Q Did we?

- 1 A Yes. We're up to the 15th.
- 2 Q All right. Then on the 15th, did he bet on 3 the Cincinnati Reds?
- 4 A Yes, sir, he did.
- 5 Q And at the time he was the Manager of the 6 Cincinnati Reds?
- 7 A Yes, sir, he was.
- 8 Q And you placed that bet for him?
- 9 A Yes, sir.
